FIFTEEN CENTS

Mayor's salary $11,000 proposed by board

On Monday, Dec. 22, at the Antioch Village Board's committee meeting, Trustee Don Amundsen recommended to the board the passage of an ordinance establishing the mayor's salary at $11,000 per year effective after April's election.

A poll of the board members showed unanimous agreement with the proposal, which is expected to be passed at the regular board meeting.

Besides the $11,000 salary the mayor will continue to receive a $200 a month expense account and since the mayor is also liquor commissioner, he will receive $1,000 per year for that job, making the village's actual financial output for the mayor, $14,400 per year.

In the same proposal Amundsen recommended the salary payment of $2,000 per year to the trustees and to the village clerk.

Village trustees have a $50 per month expense account to be used for expenses incurred in connection with village business.

Mayor Michael Haley presently receives a $2,000 a year salary plus the $1,000 per year as liquor commissioner, plus the $200 per month expenses account, making the mayors total intake at this date $5,400.

So if the ordinance proposed by Amundsen is passed at the next board meeting it will mean a total increase of $9,000 for the mayor of Antioch after the next election.

This ordinance also nullifies all other ordinances pertaining to municipal officials' salaries including the one passed two years ago raising the mayor's salary to $4,000, effective May, 1981.

Amundsen explained his action by saying that the job of mayor entailed a minimum of 20 hours a week and often 30 or more and he felt the $11,000 to be a fair salary for the amount of work entailed.

Melody Fahrner, leader of group that was in opposition to the full-time mayor at $28,000 per year, asked if Antioch could still end up with a business administrator plus a mayor at an $11,000 a year salary.

Mayor Haley answered that the board could hire a business administrator at any time just as they would hire any village employee that they deemed necessary.

Amundsen earlier had appointed Trustees William Seemann and Edgar Simonsen to organize a seven to nine man committee to make a study of the duties and responsibilities of the mayor.

He had given them a list of names of Antioch residents that he felt were neutral in their feelings on the full-time mayor, business administrator, part-time mayor dispute.

Fahrner, who had a list of her own, was concerned that the candidates for this committee be made up of a cross section of the community.

Seemann said that he would be glad to consider the people on her list.

Amundsen's recommendation further stated that the recommendations made by this committee be submitted after the election, in May, 1981, so that any decisions deriving from the recommendations of the committee would not take effect until after the 1985 election.

There was some concern from the audience that the proposed raise in the mayor's salary preceeding the report of the committee, was premature.

The question being, would the mayor be spending the amount of time to justify the $11,000 if the committee would come up with the recommendation to hire a business administrator who could possibly take some of the burden of Antioch's administration off the mayor's shoulders.

Amundsen said that he felt that there was not enough time for the committee to properly do research before making recommendations on the mayor's position before the April election.

Since the general consensus of the board was that the mayor's position, as it stands, demands more compensation, some move had to be made before the election, so that it would be in effect for the next mayoral term.

Phil Burke announces his mayoral candidacy

Another Antioch mayoral candidate surfaced on Sunday, Dec. 21, as Phil M. Burke, formally announced his candidacy for the village's highest office at a cocktail party held at the Country House.

Fifty-two year old Burke is running for political office for the first time and claims that he is an unencumbered independent candidate, a businessman not a politician, a registered Republican and a direct descendant of the first settlers in this area.

A former military and commercial pilot, he lists among his attributes 32 years of corporate business experience.

Burke claims also to have "an open minded viewpoint and be always open to input" but he has definite ideas on "bringing the village of Antioch back under the control of its citizens", opposition to gun control and tax reduction.

Burke also envisions improved youth and senior citizen programs and endorses broadening the village tax base by widening the village limits.

Burke says that Antioch needs beautification via the clean-up route and that this can be done by volunteers who want to be proud of the village they live in.

As is evidenced by the professional brochure that he is circulating, he has a lofty belief in the need for more public relations for the village to gain it county and state recognition as the "most progressive community in our great nation."

Urge township tax levy cut

The National Taxpayers United of Illinois are giving help to the local tax group who was successful in getting three tax cut referendums on the April ballot in the Village of Antioch.

They are now trying to place three tax cut referendums on the April ballot in Antioch Township.

The tax revolt group is after a 25 percent cut in the tax levy ceiling on the corporate and general assistance fund, also road levies.

An auditor from the NTUI, James Tobin, is expected to audit the township's financial books sometime in March.

About 25 signatures are needed on the petitions to get the referendums on the April ballot and those involved in the tax revolt group say that they have no doubt that they will easily get the needed signatures.

An exact signature requirement figure will be available as soon as the township tallies how many people voted in the last election.

If the referendums are passed these tax cuts could mean a savings of $.06 per $100 of assessed value on the corporate tax levy, $.025 per $100 of assessed valuation on the general assistance fund levy, and a saving of $.031 per $100 of assessed valuation on the road and bridge fund levy.

The Time Machine

50 YEARS AGO: DECEMBER 25, 1930

Witnesses of the shooting on Sunday, Dec. 14, of Harry W. Wilkison, former Gurnee resident and engineer of the Bowman dairy plant there, Friday were viewing two youths, one of whom is believed to have been the killer. They confess to a series of daring robberies but deny the murder charge.

Final papers in the deal transferring the ownership of Clarence D. Foth's newsstand and confectionery store to Mrs. Frances E. Knott were delivered Monday.

Although the identity of the vandals who broke into the YM-CA Camp at Hastings Lake has not yet been discovered, investigations by Deputy Sheriff McBride reveal that the theft was not made by professional looters in search of valuables, but rather by hungry youths desiring food.

John Pastor guilty of stealing 58 chickens from Fred Hawkins, by his own confession, was charged with grand larceny by Mr. Hawkins Saturday.

First of the crop of 1931 aspirants for office is J.C. James, who declares he will be a candidate for supervisor of Antioch township at the April election. Joe, it will be remembered, started in the race two years ago, but withdrew, leaving the field to William A. Rosing and Frank Kennedy. Not so this time, James says, and anyone counting on his leaving the race before the ballots are counted are just going to be out of luck.

30 YEARS AGO: DECEMBER 28, 1950

Residents of Antioch and the lake region will not lack for places to celebrate the advent of 1951 according to advertisements in this issue of the News. Most hosts at local places of entertainment are making special plans to provide the best in entertainment, food and drink for New Year's Eve.

Two of the three bandits who were involved in the armed robbery of the First National bank here last March, have been apprehended, according to information given out today by Sheriff Stanley Christian. Information was brought out that the planning of the robbery was done by a former employee of the Regal China company. While living here and employed at the china factory he planned the robbery and "cased" the job on the Antioch Bank.

Forty-three men will be called for military service from Lake County. United Nations forces made up mostly by United States service men have been driven half across Korea by Chinese Communists in overwhelming numbers.

Sky Lane Dude Ranch, a vacation resort located at Lake Villa, was damaged to considerable extent by fire believed to have been caused by a defective heater.

10 YEARS AGO: DECEMBER 24, 1970

The school day at Antioch High School has shortened its school day by 25 minutes, effective Jan. 6.

A 24-hour dispatch program to provide better emergency service in Antioch may materialize before the start of the next fiscal year in May 1971.

Forty members of the PM&L went carolling last week. They sang carols at the Baptist Children's Home and the Old People's Home and many other places.

Skating hours have been established by the Antioch Village Board at the Osmond Park Rink. Open skating will be allowed from noon to 6 p.m. and hockey will be allowed during morning evening hours.

In the first half of the 19th century, one-room schools in the U.S. received financial support from lotteries and tavern taxes!

When I think about it Gloria: 'I wish you a Merry Christmas!'

As I sit here, just a few days before Christmas and cards from friends and relatives trickle in, I realize that, not only have I not finished my Christmas shopping, but unopened boxes of Christmas cards are still setting on the piano.

Now, it's not that I'm too cheap to pay that 15 cents postage, although most people that I talk to say that they're not sending or receiving as many cards as they used to.

It's just that my usual helter skelter way of doing things has me just a little behind, two weeks that is.

So here's hoping that all my friends and relations feel a loyal compunction to at least glance at this column.

Merry Christmas to you all. I love you dearly for just bearing with me this last year and I know that ain't easy.

Now that that job's done, I'll think I'll save a little more money by sending Christmas wishes to some people that wouldn't recognize my signature on a card.

To the hostages that are spending this Christmas in an atmosphere very unlike the one depicted by Currier and Ives, I hope you'll be home in time to take advantage of the post Christmas and January white sales.

To our incoming President, Mr. Reagan, may you not only solve our inflation problem so that I can afford to send cards next year, but may you bring the Christmas spirit to the whole world all year round with "Peace on Earth."

To all the people who played Santa this yuletide season, from the department stores to the pancake breakfasts, to the ones ringing the bell next to the Salvation Army's kettle.

May you have just a fraction of the great warmth that you have brought to the hopeful hearts of the youngsters and thanks so much for just the sight of a Santa Claus here and there served to remind us oldsters that in the midst of this messed-up world a lot of caring people still exist.

Sequoits take doubleheader beat Wauconda, Mundelein

The Antioch Sequoits trounced the Wauconda Bulldogs, last Friday, Dec. 19 in a home game.

Two other Antioch stars, Dee Maras and Pete Weber scored 14 and 10 points respectively.

World celebrates Christmas

Christmas is celebrated in most of the nations of the world — even in China where Oriental Christians call it Sheng Dan Jieh (Holy Birth Festival).

Here's a glimpse of how the holiday is observed in some other countries, as researched by Sears, which has developed a collection of ornaments depicting ethnic Christmas customs:

England — The family searches the forest for a Yule Log for the fireplace. Children throw their gift list, addressed to Father Christmas, into the flames. If it's carried up the chimney by the draft, they know their requests will be fulfilled.

Ireland — A lighted candle is placed in a window and the door is left open so the Holy Family may stop to rest on their journey to Bethlehem.

Germany — In many homes, a young girl dresses as an angel in a white robe with golden wings and a crown. She carries a small Christmas tree.

Holland — Children here believe that St. Nicholas rides a white horse to deliver presents on his Feast Day, celebrated on December 5.

Sweden — Christmas begins on December 12, the feast day of St. Lucia. She is so admired that, to honor her, Swedish families dress the eldest daughter in a white dress with a red sash. Wearing a crown of candles, she sings carols.

Italy — Befana is the bearer of Christmas gifts. According to legend, she was cleaning the floors when the Three Kings passed on their way to see the Christ Child. They would not wait for her to finish. So today, children believe that she rides on a broomstick trying to find and worship the Holy Infant.

Mexico — Youngsters here love the pinata, a jug or figure filled with candy, nuts and toys. Children are blindfolded and given a stick to try and break the pinata which dangles from the ceiling.

Spain — Spanish children fill their shoes with carrots and hay. They leave them outside on Epiphany Eve to refresh the camels of the Three Kings on their journey.

Poland — A meal is prepared with a place left for the Christ Child. After the meal, the Star Man (usually the village priest disguised or a well-informed neighbor) quizzes the children on their catechism. Correct answers win a gift.

China — There are many religions practiced here, including Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism and Christianity. In the Christian tradition, children decorate a tree with lantern lights. Children hang up stockings and hope that Sheng Dan LaoRen (Christmas Old Man) will fill them with toys, candy and fruit.

PAY FOR PAINTING

The Antioch Village Board approved a motion to pay $924 to Bobbe and Co. for painting extras on the Sanitary Addition subject to the receipt of a statement and waiver in that amount from them.

PRANKSTERS CAUGHT

Investigation by the administration of Antioch High School discovered the pranksters that spray painted the Stevenson-Football field before the Antioch-Stevenson game who were made to pay the $90 cost of their prank.

"Patience and delay achieve more than force and rage."

Jean deLa Fontaine

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Over 44,000 Lake County homes got a cool surprise last Friday, when a break in the main power transmitter somewhere between Lake Villa and Antioch, caused a power outage, resulting in the loss of heat during as sub-zero early morning.

Antioch, Lake Villa, Lindenhurst, Ventian Village, Wildwood, Gages Lake, Round lake, Hainesville, Grayslake, Druce Lake and even part of Gurnee was heatless and lightless from 5:27 a.m.

Although most of the communities had their power restored within two and a half hours, 10,000 people in the Lake Villa area were without electricity for a longer time.

Your old Annie Mae was sure glad for her flannel "longies" and her featherbed.

Antioch can be proud of their many fine young men serving in our armed forces and one of our finest, Andreas Czipri Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Andreas Czipri Sr. just completed supervisory skills, leadership principles and small unit training at Fort Benning, Ga.

Annie Mae was right, those were wedding bells that chimed for Bob Wilton and his new bride Leta Hedberg.

They were married in Las Vegas, at a little wedding chapel, on Sunday, Dec. 14.

Speaking of Wilton, in reference to the recent "hulabaloo" being created by talk about a commercial complex being built outside the main shopping area, He says "There is an ideal place for that complex right next to the downtown area, behind the east side of Main St. and John Teresi's old building, between Main St. and the tracks."

"Its cheap land," says Wilton, "because its vacant land all you would have to do is extend Orchard St. down by the lumber yard.

Wilton claims this would enhance the downtown district by drawing more customers to it instead of the outside draw created by a perimeter shopping area.

An anonymous person sent me a copy of Gus Costoff's community resume he filed to get Rotary Club admittance along with the suggestion that anyone with this record should run for the village board.

Well, how about it Gus?"

You have my Christmas wishes for year-round health wealth, love and happiness and stay warm till I see you next year.

Perfect wedding found at Volle's, Lake Zurich

The exquisitely formal decor of Volle's Wedding Gallery, Lake Zurich, is the perfect background to display bridal and boutique merchandise, chosen with equally exquisite taste.

The stately Georgian mansion, whose columns have been enclosed in glass to create a startling spacious show-window, has been tastefully furnished in luxurious velvet french provincial furniture and plushly carpeted, befitting the elegant manner of it's proprietress, Volle herself, as she greets her customers from behind a gilded french provincial desk.

The blue carpeted curved staircase to the left of the entrance leads to the bridal salon, the shop's specialty, where virtually hundreds of bridal and attendant gowns await the perspective vow taker. Gowns whose price tags have an equally wide price range to the match the wide choice in styling.

Volle's wedding service is a complete one, with access to tuxedos, a photographer and all of the rest of the services that complete a well-done wedding, right on the same premises.

Another facet of her complete wedding service is the personal attention that her staff gives to the wedding on the important day itself, from the ceremony through the reception.

The newest addition to Volle's Wedding Gallery is an ultra smart boutique that offers the finest in women's suits, dresses, both daytime and evening, and also some outstanding separates.

There is even a rack of chic hats to top the varied selection.

Volle has been in the bridal business for 16 years but has herself been a designer for over 30 years, and is often known to whip up a number for a customer's special occasion at the last minute.

Bridal fashions from Volle's will be featured at the Lakeland Newspaper's Bridal Show, 2:20 p.m., Jan. 18, Harbor Ridge Country Club, Antioch.

According to Dawn Brumm, LCAVC food service instructor, "Jim was a two year student at the center and was not only able to master the technical aspects of commercial food service, but also able to work with and organize people."

BOARD AUTHORITY

The Lake County Board is expected to pass an ordinance strengthening its authority to grant cable tv franchises to unincorporated areas of the county.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By SALOME

FOR RELEASE WEEK OF DEC. 29, 1980

If your birthdate occurs this week...

HAPPY NEW YEAR! All the love you can spare will be triply returned as your 1981 share!

Aries — Mar. 21 - Apr. 19 Mars

New Year's resolutions won't hold the rambunctious Arian Ram in check for too long. His or her first disillusion will lead to further dissolution. Best to decide now which emotional "bond" can be cashed in now.

Taurus — Apr. 20 - May 20 Venus

The Taurean Bull has a tendency to want to charge in to a new romance this week. But best to beware that the bright lights and festive air of the holidays haven't distorted your vision. Assess all the romantic angles.

Gemini — May 21 - June 20 Mercury

The "Twin" personality of the Gemini is put to a real test this week. Both sides of your nature will tend towards the soft-fluff instead of the hard-stuff. Weigh all compliments. A Virgo wants to pin you down.

Cancer — June 21 - July 22 Moon

The Cancerian "Crab" will grab and hold onto opportunities that pour in this week. An Arian with "designs" on you will make the holding "pattern" a nice exercise. In business opt for the safe choice.

Leo — July 23 - Aug. 22 Sun

Leos and Leonas will shine this week as festivities continue. Smart social lions, though, will start to stalk post-holiday potential prospects. New business ventures await the Leonine pounce. Finances look good.

Virgo — Aug. 23 - Sept. 22 Mercury

Stop being a one-person "Task-Force." Everyone can't be as tidy as you are. Task-taking your way through the fun this week isn't the way to go. Relax. A certain Leo is sure to try to lure you into his or her den.

Libra — Sept. 23 - Oct. 22 Venus

Your good sense can lead to some good dollar-wise decisions. Your need to balance everything in life might be taxed this week. Check your balances and let a little unplanned frivolity happen. Stars indicate a change.

Scorpio — Oct. 23 - Nov. 21 Pluto

Single "strong, silent" Scorpio types might expect to find themselves both a bit weak in the knees and chattering nonstop thanks to the arrival of either a persistent Pisces or a stubborn Sagittarius in his/her life.

Sagittarius — Nov. 22 - Dec. 21 Jupiter

Here's a New Year's resolution you should keep in force: have fun! Your love of the great outdoors is fine but learn to enjoy indoor sports as well. Some Sagittarians find these to be even more fun after all.

Capricorn — Dec. 22 - Jan. 19 Saturn

This should be your week to, daily set things up right for the new year ahead. Keep important appointments. The Capricorn Goat sometimes becomes a bit capricious. Resist temptation to bolt. Patience pays off.

Aquarius — Jan. 20 - Feb. 18 Uranus

You're going to be asked for advice from a lot of people this week. Your reputation for knowing the right thing to say can prove a little awkward when you come up against a "sticky" spot. Bow out gracefully.

Pisces — Feb. 19 - Mar. 20 Neptune

That job problem is still with you. This time advice comes from an old adversary who's becoming an admirer. Listen well. More people care for you than you think. Get to know them and let them prove it.
